GAUSSIAN BLUR

가우시안 블러

Isn't that a date? It really seems like he's trying to hit on you.
Really?

So I'm curious but do we get in a relationship after getting closer to each other or do we get closer while dating?
Doesn't it differ from one person to another? But these days everyone gets in a relationship first and sees after. Then they separate if it doesn't work out

Isn't that too light hearted?
That's how it all works nowadays

But I already told you that you didn't have to resist me since he lives nearby...
I know. But it's just in front of the bus station so what. You said you'd come back after sleeping there

It'd be nice if all my memories erase when I turn 30

It would have been a good if everything bad or embarrassing would be forgotten and reset...

You know it's impossible.

Were there so many embarrassing and regretful things? Do you hate yourself?
I mean... Well I always thought before as well that I was an ace but recently, I have the thought that I'm more pathetic and worthless... Anyway, I don't like this much

You are not worthless.

...I don't have the thought of comforting you saying something like that and it's kind of miserable if you see me as...
What's that?

I was like that too. The world just seemed busy and felt suffocating.
A feeling like if you were to die at that instant you get to sleep and everything would end.
It was kind of hard to breath

But even after countless thoughts, in any way, it wasn't my fault.

Something bad happening is just an accident. Like a bolt out of the blue.
I wasn't doing anything but was just a bit unlucky.

Everything bad that happens around you, like your family getting separated or being bullied.
Actually, everything always changes - anybody could leave me and disappear.

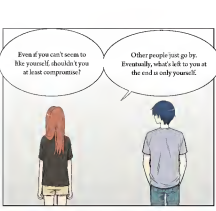
Somebody you trusted could hurt you or you get bullied by some other people but

But even after thinking about it all the time I still believe I've done nothing wrong.

Mmmm...

and even if you were to hate yourself as much as you want,
you have no choice but to live with you, yourself forever.



Even if you can't seem to like yourself, shouldn't you at least compromise?
Other people just go by. Eventually, what's left to you at the end is only yourself.

So it's not that great to self-deprecate too.
Mmmm...

The bus' here. I'm going.

It was the first time I was reluctant to see Yool leaving.

I wanted to talk with her more.

Maybe at that time I only knew Yool by her name and that she was in the same class. I thought that... she isn't the same person I used to know at that time at all.

It was also the first time that I wanted to know more about somebody.

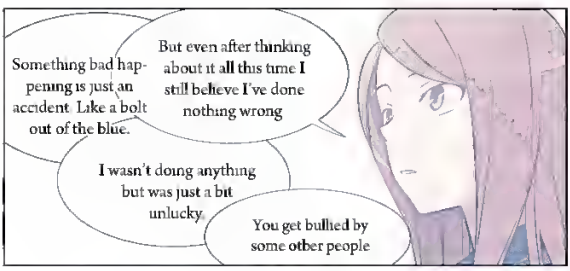
But even after thinking about it all this time I still believe I've done nothing wrong



Something bad happening is just an accident. Like a bolt out of the blue.
